Dr. Gaskins has given a street running along the east side of "Joy Farm" and to the public road north of the jail, and the council will at once open, and improve it. The street has not yet been named, but the TELEGRAPH moves that it be christened "Gaskins street."

It is said by everybody that the Starke Drug Company pursue the most liberal policy toward their customers, cheerfully taking back any article bought of them which does not prove entirely satisfactory. The public is advised to bear this in mind when in need of anything in the drug line, toilet goods, etc.

Misses Mary Richter and Beatrice Daniel, who spent the winter months with their aunt, Mrs. M. G. Witkowski, left Tuesday for their homes at Madison, Ga. Each of the young ladies made many friends here who will remember them pleasantly and be delighted by a repetition of their visit to the "Land of Flowers."

The farms of Dr. Gaskins and Mr. Peck adjoin and there is a good deal of friendly rivalry between these agriculturists. Mr. Peck does not think that "Joy Farm" is an appropriate name for the doctor's possessions, so with a fine sense of the fitness of things the doctor has christened Mr. Peck's agricultural domain "Misery Farm." Mr. Peck is ready to wager that "Misery" will bring better results than "Joy," and the TELEGRAPH man is to act as referee in the case when next season arrives.

Mr. L. C. Hull has propagated a variety of strawberry from the Hoffman and Collier varieties, which has proven a great success, both in point of productiveness and excellence of taste. On one plant Mr. Hull counted 100 berries besides a wealth of bloom, and he is convinced that his new berry will prove superior to many of the varieties now grown. These experiments are often productive of good results and it is gratifying to know that Mr. Hull has set the pace and met with success. It is not at all necessary that our fruit and vegetable growers and farmers should import new ideas and methods. They should originate them.

Look out For Your Homes.

The TELEGRAPH has always striven to guard the interests of its subscribers and the tax-payers of Bradford county in general, and in its efforts it has always found a ready helper in the person of Col. W. T. Weeks, our efficient county clerk.

We now wish to sound a note of warning to persons whose lands were certified to the state in 1893 for taxes of 1892. According to the instructions of Comptroller Bloxham to Col. Weeks these lands cannot be redeemed after the 3d day of April, 1895, but then if not reduced by the owners, become the property of the state, and will be sold as are other state lands.

It is very important that this matter should be looked after, and if not attended to in time will cost persons whose lands were so certified, an endless amount of trouble and expense, if not their homes.

If you are in doubt as to whether your taxes have been properly attended to do not delay, but get the matter to rights at once. You may redeem lands either through Col. W. T. Weeks at Starke, or through Comptroller Bloxham at Tallahassee.

The Eclipse of the moon.

The eclipse of the moon arrived Sunday night on the schedule laid down by the astronomers, and was viewed by many people in Starke. The first point in the eclipse was reached about 9:50, passing into total eclipse at 10:27 and ending at 12:24.

One of Starke's estimable ladies called for smoked glass in order that she might fully enjoy the view. She was thinking of the eclipse of the sun, and when reminded of the mistake joined heartily in the merriment of her friends.

A number of young people who tire of "pesky moonlight nights" think of petitioning for more frequent eclipses. One young lady declares that it is a nuisance to have a full moon staring one (or more strictly speaking "two") out of countenance when the weather is so suggestive of "arm" chairs on the verandah.

Bridges Brothers.

The Bridges Brothers completed their course of vocal instruction in this city Monday night and gave a class rehearsal, which was largely attended and much enjoyed. The singing of the chorus best demonstrated the effectiveness of the training, and, to say the least, the progress made by the class of 60 pupils was remarkable.

The Bridges Brothers and their wives are musicians of rare talent, and their performances in this city will be pleasantly remembered for a long time.

BENTON, ARK.
Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.
Gentlemen--I had Rheumatism about two months during last winter, was confined to my room most of the time. I saw an advertisement in the Saine Courier recommending P. P. P. as a cure for Rheumatism. I bought three bottles, but before I got through with the third bottle I was cured, and have not felt the least effect of Rheumatism since. It is undoubtedly the best remedy for Rheumatism I ever tried. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public.

Yours Truly, D. M. CUNNINGHAM.

What is the difference between a sallow skin, dull eyes and faded cheeks, and a ruddy complexion, bright eyes and rosy cheeks?
There are 2 answers:--

1st ANSWER: All the difference in the world. One is ugliness; the other is beauty.

2nd ANSWER: 25 cents difference. For 25 cents you will secure a three weeks' treatment (two different medicines) which will correct your disordered liver, banish all poisonous bile, purify your blood, stimulate appetite, tone up the nerves, and make a new creature of you.

This is a famous remedy, and while perfectly harmless, it never fails. It is made of the purest preparations.
